

Women's Interest Networking Panel

Paula Calimafde was a panelist at a Women's Interest Networking event hosted by M&T Bank on November 10, 2015. Paula and the other panelists discussed their career growth, community involvement and the challenges they have overcome to be where they are today.

The lively luncheon included set questions for the panelists, as well as questions from the audience about work/life balance and adapting to generational differences in their work environment. Paula is chair of the firm's Retirement Plans and Employee Benefits practice groups, and a senior partner in the firm's Estate Planning, Tax and Nonprofits groups.
