DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: BREAKING THE CYCLE

October 2021 marks the 34th-Anniversary of Domestic Violence Awareness Month. However, even after nearly three and a half decades of national acknowledgement, domestic violence remains an insidious phenomenon that plagues the lives of many families on a daily basis.

Q&A - NAVIGATING THE HOLIDAYS, COVID AND DIVORCE

With continued COVID-19 restrictions on gatherings and travel, divorced and blended families have to face even more challenges this holiday season. Divorced couples have to come to agreements about everything from travel, gifts and time with children.

CHALLENGES OF CORONAVIRUS FOR DIVORCED AND BLENDED FAMILIES

Sheltering in place during the pandemic is difficult when you're living, working and schooling in the same location with your family. Add in the complexities of divorce, blended families and economic uncertainty, and the pressure goes up further. Some experts predict there will be a rise in divorce when the pandemic ends.
