

Allison Lee Elected President of Montgomery County Chapter of Business and Professional Women of MD

Allison Lee has been elected president of the Montgomery County Chapter of Business and Professional Women of Maryland (MCBPW), a group that supports legislation to ensure equality, equity and economic change for women.

Allison, a former associate in the firm's Estate Planning, Estate & Trust Administration and Corporate, was chosen by a vote of MCBPW members.