

David Shapiro Elected to the Board of Directors of the National Philharmonic

David Shapiro, a member of the firm's Corporate, Health Law, Government Contracts and Employment Law practice groups, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the prestigious National Philharmonic.

Consisting of a professional orchestra and a 150-voice all-volunteer chorale group, the National Philharmonic is the largest performing group in residence at the Music Center at Strathmore in North Bethesda.