

Jim Hammerschmidt Speaking at American Bar Association Webinar

Paley Rothman's Employment Law Chair and Co-President, Jim Hammerschmidt will be speaking in the American Bar Association's upcoming webinar: Updates in Employee Mobility. The webinar is set for March 4, 2022 at 1 P.M. EST.

He will be speaking alongside other industry thought leaders as they take you through recent case laws and legislations impacting employee mobility and non-competes. To learn more about the details of the event click this link.

Paley Rothman's Employment Law Group has a mission to help employers manage personnel and employment matters, comply with the law and preempt employment-related legal problems so that they can avoid or minimize costly disputes, litigation or liability. They partner with their clients to ensure that they recognize issues before they develop into more significant problems. They also encourage clients to take advantage of their training, educational, and audit capabilities.