

Paley Rothman Hires Tracey Coates as an Associate

The firm is pleased to announce the hiring of Tracey Coates as an associate in the Litigation and Family Law practice groups.

A graduate of Smith College who earned her J.D. at the Hamline University School of Law, she clerked for then - Chief Presiding Judge John S. Leonardo of the Pima County (Ariz.) Superior Court and served as a Staff Attorney for the Maryland Legal Aid Bureau in Baltimore. Tracey is a member of the American Bar Association, D.C. Bar Association, Maryland Bar Association and the Montgomery County Bar Association.