

Paley Rothman Welcomes Family Law Associate Jacqueline Mendelsohn

Paley Rothman is pleased to announce that Jacqueline Mendelsohn has joined its Family Law practice group as an Associate.

Prior to joining Paley Rothman, Jacqueline practiced at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP in Washington, D.C. She represented clients in a wide range of litigation, including antitrust, consumer class action, and white collar matters. Jacqueline also maintained a successful pro bono practice, obtaining a civil protective order in D.C. Superior Court on behalf of a domestic abuse victim and working on a team that secured the release of a client detained at the U.S. Naval Station at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.
