

Paley Rothman Welcomes Jennifer Pope as New Estate Planning Attorney

Paley Rothman is pleased to announce that Jennifer Pope has joined its Estate Planning and Estate & Trust Administration practice groups as Associate.

Jenna advises individuals, families, and small business owners on their estate planning needs. She advises clients about estate and income tax planning, creditor protection, protecting assets for those with disabilities, and the particular needs of blended families.

Jenna has a J.D. from American University, Washington College of Law and a B.S. from the University of Mary Washington.