

Paley Rothman Welcomes Litigation and Corporate Associate Jase Tilley

Paley Rothman is pleased to announce that Jase Tilley has joined the firm's Litigation and Corporate practice groups as an Associate.

Prior to joining Paley Rothman as an associate, Jase worked as a law clerk for Paley Rothman assisting all practice areas in resolving client matters. Jase has also gained valuable experience as a judicial intern in Judge Rigsby's chambers at the District of Columbia Superior Court and as a law clerk with the Special Inspector General of the Troubled Asset Relief Fund. These experiences gave him a practical experience in resolving legal issues and navigating the legal process.
