Publications
March 9, 2011

Alternative Dispute Resolution and Ethics

Is there a Duty to Discuss ADR with Clients?

Read More
October 15, 2010

Estate & Trust Litigation Can Be Avoided: It’s All in the Planning

Your work is done. The estate documents and will are signed. You have completed your mission and accomplished the goals of the client, who is pleased.

Read More
July 21, 2010

Planning for U.S. Persons Inheriting Offshore Trust Structures

The Internal Revenue Code (Code) can greatly complicate matters for U.S. persons with overseas activities or holdings. In particular, the failure of these persons to comply with various return filing requirements under federal law can produce harsh monetary penalties and possible criminal sanctions. This article discusses some of the more important of these requirements and applies them to the example that follows.

Read More
June 10, 2010

Office Leasing Issues?

If your practice has outgrown its current space or you have decided that you want to relocate to another building for one reason or another, or you are opening an additional office location...for whatever reason you must lease space for your business. What do you do?

Read More
March 20, 2010

Mastering The Art of A Corporate Acquisition

Many endeavors contain elements of both “technical competence” and “artistic skill.” Playing beautiful music requires more than knowing which fingers hit which keys in the proper sequence. Similarly, a race car driver brings much more to the track than knowing how to use the accelerator, brake and steering wheel.

Read More
Prev

- 8
- 9
- 10
- 11
- 12

Next
See More News
Webinars Resource Center

 | 4800 Hampden Lane, 6th Floor, Bethesda, MD 20814-2930 | 301-656-7603 | 301-654-7354 fax